"A good anchor, strong rope & a brass windlass to a boater should always be like deep love, strong relationships & faith in God to the rest of us" — HR

Commodore's Corner

Commodore Ralph Kennedy

Greetings HBYC Members & Friends!

I want to thank all the members that helped make the fund raiser for the Florida Veterans Foundation a success. Your efforts raised $6.342.00. We also received two checks made out directly to the FVF totaling $321.00. Paul Kimbel, from the FVF will be at the dinner on August 9 th for the check presentation.

The past several dinners have had a positive impact on the HBYC finances. In the past we had often used caterers to supply dinners. The use of caterers did not produce the necessary revenue to maintain and improve the club. At the latest finance committee meeting Suzanne Lemmons presented an analysis comparing the financial impact of each. It was quite clear that we are better served when we prepare our own dinners.

Gay Colleypriest has been instrumental in putting together a plan to have a group of people assisting in putting together meal plans and responsibilities. The advantages, in addition to the positive financial impact, are better meals and the preparation becomes more of a social event. We still need a few more people to make preparing dinners an occasional event. Please call Gay for more details.

I mentioned last month expanding the areas we can serve alcoholic beverages to include the downstairs areas. Walter has transformed the area to a clean usable space. We will be putting together a small committee to come up with a plan to decorate and furnish this area. We feel this will not only help increase our own enjoyment of the downstairs but will also create an area more attractive for rentals. If you want input on this project, please let me know.

Another upcoming program we previously discussed is the yoga class. Christine Considine has offered to be the instructor. She is certified in a variety of yoga classes: chair, restorative, yin, power, kids, etc. and is a certified paddle guide and instructor for Paddleboard Lessons and Paddleboard. Final Details should be out in the next few weeks.

2024 NOMINATIONS

Now is the time to make nominations for election of officers for the year 2024. Jim Secrest is chairing the nominating committee. He will be posting the list of current nominees this week. We have several positions we need to fill.

Please give strong consideration to serving the HBYC and help charting us to a successful 2024. If you would serve or have a candidate in mind, please contact Jim Seacrest. Jim's ph. # is (352) 683-1545.

Nominations will close after the general membership meeting in September.

Also Cash tips you leave on the tables are for our servers. Any tips you leave on your credit card when you pay for your dinner & drinks is for the bartender. Thank you for your generosity.

From Gay Colleypriest

Good Afternoon Club Members,

We would like to put together a team of members who enjoy cooking or planning meals for Wednesday night dinners and any other special dinners we hold.

The idea is to get 6 - 12 members and we rotate teams of 2 or 3 to plan and cook the meals for a Wednesday night dinner. We can also throw in a Food Truck, Pot Luck or Cater a meal for dinner on occasion to mix it up. We have some really good cooks that have prepared meals for us the past few months and would like to give others an opportunity to cook. At the moment we are looking at the remainder of the year to plan the menus and teams to cook.

I do have a few that have volunteered for a few dates. If you are interested in throwing your name in the hat to cook or help plan a meal please let me know. We would also like some input from the membership on what type of meals that you would like for us to cook or any other ideas for theme type dinners we could plan.

Below are the dates for the dinners and who will be hosting the dinner.
