Lesson 3

What mental images are you creating?

"That's when Dad came squealing around the corner in his 1981 diesel Rabbit (real rabbits are quiet, cute, and cuddly; but there's nothing quiet, cute, or cuddly about Dad's piece of junk car.) The squealing noise came from the loose fan belt he never bothered to fix. If it weren't for the fire, we would've smelled Dad coming before we heard him. To keep the environment cleaner, Dad had converted his car to run on [recycled] vegetable oil... so he spread the tasty aroma of fried chicken wings wherever he went" (pg. 63-64).
