Judge Martha Anderson of Pontiac, MI; biased loser

The state of Arizona presented Eileen Willet with a law license in 1977 after she graduated from the University of Detroit Law School.

For the past thirty-five years (35) years (ca.1979 -2014), Eileen has had her significant snout firmly implanted in the public trough. Apparently, no self-respecting law firm in the greater Detroit area was about to offer Martha a good paying job.

In one matter, a litigant who unfortunately had his case assigned to Martha, claims that she acted in a biased manner against him.

The litigant also alleges that Martha refused to review video evidence that would have favored him and totally ignored other evidence.

When the litigant questioned Martha about her policies, she told him: "Too bad, take it to the court of appeals."

Of course Martha doesn't give a damn about the cost to the taxpayers of Michigan to have her conduct on the bench and/or asinine rulings reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Put simply, Martha can't be disciplined nor tossed off the bench for being biased or a Moron.

Unfortunately, as we speak (ca. November 2014), Martha continues to sit as a Oakland County Circuit Court judge in Pontiac, Michigan, which is a suburb of Detroit.
