MILFORD SOUND

This is one of the reasons millions come to NZ every year. They call it the 8th Wonder of the Natural World. Neither words nor pictures can really do Milford Sound justice. So you just have to go and see for yourself.

Milford Sound

Considered by many, as the eighth wonder of the natural world, Milford Sound is truly a magnificent geographic wonder and considered New Zealand's most stunning natural attraction. It sits within Fiordland National Park in the southwest of New Zealand's South Island. Despite its name, Milford Sound is actually a fiord, not a sound. It is also the only fiord in New Zealand that is accessible by road. It's a glacially carved fiord surrounded by sheer towering mountains, the iconic Mitre Peak the mightiest of all. However, its remote location, bounded by steep cliffs and dense rainforest, means its special features remain unspoilt. Rain or shine, Milford Sound continues to captivate even the most experienced traveller with its beautiful surroundings, ink-dark waters, gushing waterfalls and captivating views.

Visit Milford Sound to experience the beauty of this pristine scenic destination, a bucket list experience!!

WORLD OF WEARABLEART

How cool is this "spectacular" in our Nation's "Coolest Capital." The World of WearableArt started in Nelson in 1987. Back then it was held in a marquee only on weekends because the performers were unpaid volunteers holding down normal day-jobs. However since its move to Wellington in 2005, the show has grown and become an international sensation.

This year the show has an Elizabethan theme, so expect to be extra WOW'ed.

There are still some tickets available however they are going very fast. And now that Kiwis can't fly to Sydney for "Hamilton the Musical" they're looking at what's hot at home. So be quick.

Our 2 night packages start at the incredible price of $349 pp, share twin and include daily cooked breakfasts and a Premium WOW show ticket.

And we've not even had time yet to think about the vineyards of the West or on Waiheke Island. You might need to add another day from $75 pp share twin. Contact your travel advisor to help you book.
