

I've been managing my time by doing schoolwork. When possible, I've been helping around the house. I've been taking more time to investigate my future about colleges I would consider attending. It hasn't been easy as it's a lot of extra free time. I also play games, talk to my friends, and make Tik Toks. At night before I go to sleep, I read a section from Kingdom Man Devotional we received at the last meeting.

Managing during the Coronavirus Pandemic...

Coping with majo

A major change has been not being able to see my friends i miss them and that everything is closed, I've been helping clean around the house while my Mom is hard at work downstairs. There isn't really that much to do, but I do what I can

Standing Strong in Crisis