This Weeks

Program:
Rucker Preston
- Family
Promise

This week we had the pleasure of hearing from Rucker Preston with Family Promise of Bell County. Family Promise is all about empowering families experiencing homelessness to achieve sustainable independence through an outcome oriented, community-based response. They believe in giving a hand up and not a hand out to all of their families that come through their doors. Rucker gave us an update on the property. The Promise Homes will be eight transitional homes for families experiencing homelessness. The expansion will more than double the Guest Shelter program's capacity, allowing a total of 15 families to be served through the Guest Shelter program on-site at one time.
