This Weeks

Program: Chris Del Conte

This week we had the pleasure of hearing from Chris Del Conte. He is the Athletic Director for the University of Texas since 2017. Del Conte gave multiple updates on the Athletic Department and the University. Hot topic of the afternoon was, of course, UT Football. He spoke on the Team having very young players this season considering most senior players went on to the NFL Draft. The team is currently ranked 5th in the SEC and made it back into the Top 10 of the AP poll this past week. Del Conte has high hopes for the team in the next few years. He also spoke on the need to have more regulations with the Transfer Portal and NIL dealings.

Fun Facts & Did you Knows?

Chris Del Conte was recently named College Footballs 25 Most Powerful People by USA Today. He received this honor due to overseeing a "department that generated the most total operating revenue nationally in fiscal year 2024 at $331.9 million with $325 million in operating expenses. Helped spearhead Texas going to the SEC where it started league play in 2024. That move set off a round of conference realignment."
