Privacy Statement

Privacy is an important issue for our clients and is considered a priority for us at Flagship Capital Management. It is our policy to respect the privacy of all accounts we maintain as investment advisor and to protect the security and confidentiality of non-public information relating to those accounts. This policy applies to former clients as well as current clients.

The Securities and Exchange Commission's Regulation S-P requires investment advisors to establish and adhere to privacy policies and to notify their clients accordingly.

Personal Information Collected

In order for Flagship to effectively service your account as your investment advisor, you will have provided us with information necessary to implement the financial services you have requested. This information may include:

- Information received from you, such as your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, social security number, occupation and income,
- Information relating to your investment transactions, including account balances, positions and activity;
- Information which may be received from various sources with your consent or with the consent of your broker dealer and /or third party administrator.

Sharing of Non Public Personal Information

Flagship Capital does not disclose non-public personal information relating to current or former clients to any third parties, except: as required by the appropriate broker dealer/custodian or third party administrator, permitted or required by law or with your prior permission. Flagship has educated its staff with regard to this privacy policy and as a general policy our staff will not discuss or disclose information regarding an account as described above. Flagship Capital reserves the right to make changes to this policy
