THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Jack McChurch gave us a wonderful presentation discussing the preparation for time after passing. Death is something that happens to all of us eventually, and Jack explained many reasons why preparing for that day preemptively makes a lot of sense. Funerals are meant to bring people together for comfort and support in a time of grieving.

The three parts of a complete plan:

1. The service: funeral vs cremation
2. Tangible goods: casket, urn, vault, printed materials, etc.
3. Cash advance items: death certificates, obituary, cemetery charges, honorariums, flowers, catering, etc.

Congratulations to John Bailey, who was NOT a LOOOOOOSER today, and went home with a fat wallet after winning the tail twister pot!

Thanks to everyone who came out to the follies critique and McClane's safe kids day. I got some great feedback to help make our annual show even better next year. We fed many happy kids and volunteers on Saturday.

Ephesians 3:20-21

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
