This Weeks
Program: Justin
Scott - Director of
Law Enforcement
Texas

This week we had the pleasure of hearing from Justin Scott, current Director of Law Enforcement for Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Justin Scott is a 32-year law enforcement veteran and a Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Master Peace Officer and Licensed Instructor. He is a state police officer serving with the Texas Comptroller's office for the past 23 of his 32 years of law enforcement service. Justin spoke about the State Officers Mission which included deterring intentional criminal conduct against Texas Tax Laws by detecting and investigating felony and misdemeanor tax-related crimes and informing the public of the results.

Fun Facts and Did you Knows?

"One of my proudest achievements that year was our board's decision to rename two of our most prestigious awards. We felt it was essential to formally recognize the extraordinary dedication and service of two long-standing members. The Leo Award was renamed in honor of Harley D. Mitchell, a pivotal figure involved in every Lions Show since 1936. Similarly, the Lion of the Year Award was dedicated to D.Q. "Jack" Baskin, acknowledging his years of tireless commitment to the club. These changes felt like a way to truly honor those who built the foundation of our club's success and to set an example for future generations." Past President George White
