Manchester Boy Scouts Troop 332 Fundraiser

Welcome everyone and thank you for attending Manchester's second (annual?) Battle of the Bands!

Once again, we are very excited to present this opportunity for local musicians to showcase their talents for the benefit of our local Scouting program. Scouting has been in the Manchester area for over 50 years and continues to help teach the values of community, citizenship, leadership, and adventure to our local youth.

Your attendance here tonight, together with our gracious donors and sponsors, will enable the Scouting tradition to continue and grow in our area. Young people will have the opportunity to attend summer camp at the Mt. Norris Scouting Reservation in Eden, Vermont, local scouting events throughout Vermont, and high adventure trips to places such as Philmont, New Mexico.

Please join me and the Friends of Troop 332 in celebrating the efforts of all the musicians tonight as they compete for the title of Best Band in Manchester!

Enjoy the Show,
Greg Gillam

Our JUDGES

Ariel Rudiakov

Ari conducts and plays acoustic and electric viola. He is co-founder of Taconic Music, Inc. here in Manchester, teaches viola at Bennington College, and conducts orchestras in NY and CT. It's been fun for him to play in backing orchestras for Elvis Costello, Yanni, KD Lang, Diana Ross, Chaka Kahn, Maxine Linehan, Game of Thrones Live!, and playing in Led Zeppelin and Beatles tribute bands and Candlelight concerts, among other things. If you want to check out his electric viola playing, go to Bandcamp, Spotify or other platforms and dial up Wizards by the Region of Where. On that track you'll also hear the amazing Andrew Koss on drums (who also arranged and produced) and John Clark on guitar. Rock on!

MaryBeth O'Donnell

MaryBeth served as Head of School for the Red Fox Community School and is now the co-founder of Magic Meadow Productions. MaryBeth is a beloved and very funny community member, make sure to check her out on social!

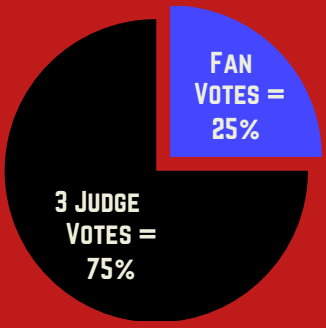

Scott Corey

Scott has been the bar manager at Barrows House for 10 years! He also enjoys serving as the Trivia night host. Scott is a music aficionado and trivia master with an extensive knowledge of music history and song catalogs and a keen ear for talent.
