

Professional Products

Our facility offers the highest quality of professional dietary supplements, including our own brand. Our various professional brands are designed to work together in a synergistic manner. We can even individualize your supplement just for you. Not too many facilities can say that.

Products labels for professional use usually requires a consultation, and evaluation for possible interactions and contraindications.

Working with many manufacturers, we can individualize a program for each person.