This Weeks Program: Neisa Wilhite

This week we had the pleasure of hearing from Neisa Wilhite. She is a published author, survivor advocate, life & behavior coach, and ministry leader with over 30 years of experience guiding families, youth, and communities toward healing and legacy. As the author of Survivor List, Neisa shares her personal journey as a SA'd survivor turned Freedom Leader - transforming trauma into testimony and building Christ - Centered movements that restore identity and joy. Neisa spoke about her campaigns Daughters of Promise and Lady Christmas. She also mentioned that her and her husband provide counseling to the community. Some of these services include Child and Family Counseling, Trauma Recovery, and Life & Behavior Coaching.

Fun Facts & Did you Knows?

Core Values of LCI- We believe that diversity is our strength, and it starts with fostering understanding, appreciating our differences, and valuing our unique talents and experiences. We know we can better serve the world when we embrace everyone, because together we are more.

EXTRA EXTRA, HEAR ALL ABOUT IT!!

- Next week for our November meeting, please wear your BEST BURNT ORANGE to make our guest, the AD for the University of Texas feel welcome! And what better time to bring a guest????
- Please continue praying for good health and comfort for some of our Lions in need.
- Be on the lookout for an email regarding the upcoming Reverse Raffle committee meeting. I will need many volunteers. Thank you!
