THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

This week we heard from John Wayne Southerland, the Founder and chairman of the board of Back to School Extravaganza, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to helping economically challenged central Texas children with needed school supplies and clothing. Over 300 children were served last year, and this year the goal is 1000 kids. Annually this event allows kids to go purchase their own necessary items, get free haircuts, snowcones, etc. Funded completely by donors. Each year the extravaganza has grown to serve more families. Check out more information on their website: b2sganza.com

Also, the last Saturday in July at Wilson Valley Mercantile in little river academy there will be a fundraiser with live music, drinks, etc. It will be free to attend.

Please keep John Rude in your prayers with pancreatic cancer, and Kathy Gover's husband who recently had a stent placed.

Ephesians 2:10

For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.
