Introducing "Christopher & Rocket and the Kids from Willow Lane." Meet Rocket, the tiniest and most adorable mouse, who just so happens to be Chris's very best friend in the entire world. They are inseparable! Together with their fellow companions, 8-year-old Chris, along with Chrissie, April, Faith, James, and Andy, form a remarkable team on a mission to tackle Chris's latest adventure at the mysterious Baylor Mansion.

Legend has it that Old Man Baylor, the previous owner of the mansion, was known for being rather unkind to people. In retaliation, an old gypsy woman placed a curious curse upon him, one that forces him to roam as a ghost until he completes three "Good Deeds" for others.

Intrigued by this ghostly mystery, Christopher and Rocket embark on a daring journey to visit the mysterious old mansion. What they find there will leave you in stitches—the presence of a ghost named Ivan. But Ivan isn't your typical spooky specter; he's a great big Bumbling Goofball of a Ghost!

"Good Deeds" is a heartwarming and hilarious tale that will enchant young readers and parents alike.
