This Weeks Program: Bill "Stud Muffin" Heche

Bill's life story is as extraordinary as it is inspiring. He joined the Air Force at just 17, where he became part of the military's very first official combat weather team. In addition to saving lives through critical forecasts, he also served courageously in combat missions and volunteered for the task of helping identify fallen soldiers. After retiring as Chief of Weather Station Operations at Fort Hood, Bill began a new chapter as the beloved voice on Texas radio and TV we've all come to know, forecasting the weather and sharing his signature sense of humor. Now over 62 years into his meteorologist career, Bill is still going strong, hosting a weekly gospel show, practicing martial arts as a third-degree black belt, and continuing to serve his community with passion and purpose.

Fun Facts & Did you Knows?

Fact From Past Presidents: "During a time where most male Lions wore suit and ties, District Governor JF Clawson had just presented a weekly program and THEN someone proceeded to cut off HIS neck tie!" PP Wade Matthews (Happy Birthday!!) (This was a pre-planned trick.... allegedly????)
