

Providing Family Meals Program

New Day Outreach Ministries will partner with Feeding America to bring food to families facing hunger in the communities impacted by natural disasters during humanitarian crises in the region where we live and work. We believe sharing life's necessities is a concrete way to give.